

IMPORTANT THAT PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW ABOUT GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY

The testimonial I am to give you comes unsolicited. I have been suffering from lumbago for ten years and at times was unable to stand erect. A Mr. Dean of this city, saw me in my condition (bent over) and inquired the cause. I told him that I had the lumbago. He replied, "If you get what I tell you to, you need not have it." I said I would take anything for ease. He said, "You get two bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and take it, and if it does not fix you O. K. I will pay for the medicine myself." I did so and am a well man. For five months I have been as well as could be. Before I took your Swamp-Root was in constant pain day and night. This may look like advertising, but it seems to me most important that the public should be made familiar with this treatment as it is the only one I know which is an absolute cure. I owe a great deal to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and am anxious that others situated as I was should know and take advantage of it. Hoping that this testimonial may be of benefit to some one, I am

The Point of View.

"I notice that you have given up the fight for a cleaner city. You used to be one of the leaders in the opposition to the smoke nuisance."

"Yes. I've come to the conclusion that smoke cannot be abolished. It's useless to keep harping on the question."

"By the way, what business are you in now?"

"Oh, I've quit working for a salary. An uncle of mine left me a valuable interest in one of our biggest machine shops."

DAME NATURE HINTS
When the Food is Not Sulted.

When Nature gives her signal that something is wrong it is generally with the food; the old Dame is always faithful and one should act at once.

To put off the change is to risk that which may be irreparable. An Arizona man says:

"For years I could not safely eat any breakfast. I tried all kinds of breakfast foods, but they were all soft, starchy messes, which gave me distressing headaches. I drank strong coffee, too, which appeared to benefit me at the time, but added to the headaches afterwards. Toast and coffee were no better, for I found the toast very constipating."

"A friend persuaded me to quit coffee and the starchy breakfast foods, and use Postum and Grape-Nuts instead. I shall never regret taking his advice."

"The change they have worked in me is wonderful. I now have no more of the distressing sensations in my stomach after eating, and I never have any headaches. I have gained 12 pounds in weight and feel better in every way. Grape-Nuts make a delicious as well as a nutritious dish, and I find that Postum is easily digested and never produces dyspepsia symptoms."

GOD'S PITY FOR THE HEATHEN

Sunday School Lesson for April 30, 1911
Specially Arranged for This Paper

LESSON TEXT—Jonah 2:1-4:11. Memory Verse 11.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations."—Matt. 23:19.

TIME—Jeroboam II, king of Israel, in whose time Jonah prophesied, reigned (Beecher) B. C. 822-792, (Hastings) B. C. 804-763. Amos and Hosea were contemporary prophets.

PLACE—Gath-hepher, north of Nazareth in Galilee, the Mediterranean Sea, Joppa, and Nineveh.

KINGS—Jeroboam II attained suzerainty over all the peoples from the Mediterranean to the Euphrates. "The writer of the book of Jonah has presented accurately the values of the historical situation. It was the unknown dangers in Assyria, just after Ramman-nirari had broken the power of Damascus, that rendered the successes of Jeroboam possible."

Jonah was unquestionably a historical personage. He lived in the reign of Jeroboam II, king of Israel, in whose time Amos's work was accomplished. According to 2 Kings 14: 25, he prophesied the recovery from Syria of the lost border possessions of Israel. He is said to have belonged to Gath-hepher, a town of Zebulun, and his grave is still shown in the vicinity of Nazareth. Gath-hepher was about an hour's walk north of Nazareth. Jonah was therefore a prophet of Galilee. Jewish legend said that he was the son of the widow of Sarepta, whom Elijah had restored to life; and also that he was the youth whom Elisha had sent to anoint Jehu, king of Israel.

This little biography begins with the announcement that God asked a man to do something for him. It is significant that other Bible writers (Nehemiah, Jeremiah, Zephaniah, Haggai, Micah) begin the story of their lives at the same point. Our acquaintance with Paul begins with his summons to duty, and the apostles were not known until Christ bade them follow him. Jonah's call was to go to Nineveh, the greatest and wickedest city in the world, and threaten it with doom from Jehovah.

How did Jonah answer his missionary call? By running away. He fled from the presence of the Lord, as if God were, in his mind, only a local divinity, ruling over Israel, but unable to see the fugitive if he fled far enough beyond his territory. Jonah should have asked himself, "If the God of Israel sees what is going on at distant Nineveh, and is concerned about it, is it to be supposed that his unfaithful servant will escape his notice, like some defaulting apprentice lad, who hopes to elude his master's notice by running away to sea?"

Jonah jumps on board a vessel bound for the most remote place known to the ancient world, Tarsus, that is Tartessus, on the Guadalquivir in Spain. God interfered with Jonah's plans by sending one of those sudden, treacherous storms so frequent on the Mediterranean, a storm so fierce that even the skilful Phoenician sailors were compelled to throw out their cargo, and were filled with terror.

Jonah calls upon the sailors to throw him into the sea—to purchase their peace by his sacrifice. That call is the finest thing in the picture. It is the real miracle. It marks the enlargement of the man. But the honest fellows were loath to take him at his word, and the poor rowers plied the long sweeps more earnestly than ever. Even when obliged at last to throw Jonah overboard, they did it with a prayer to Jehovah. And at once the sea was calm.

How long was Jonah in the great fish? Three days and three nights, which, according to the Jewish mode of reckoning, might, as in the case of our Lord's stay in the tomb, have been only one entire day and parts of the day preceding and the day following.

It is striking to notice the change in Jonah as soon as he ceased to run away from his duty and became obedient to God's command. What was the command? The first repeated: "Go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim what I bade you proclaim, the doom of their sins."

Then God prepared a gourd. This book is full of this word prepared. We are told that the Lord prepared a great fish, a gourd, a worm, and a sultry east wind. This gourd was most likely the bottle-gourd, often planted to grow over trellis-work. It is thought by some to have been the palmaria christi, or castor-oil plant, which still grows to a great size in the Jordan valley. It is so-called because it is a five-leaved plant, one leaf of which outspread was thought to represent the hand of Christ.

Next in the acted parable came a worm, destroying the gourd, and the scorching, driving its hot blast down upon the sweating prophet. Then, by a wonderfully true touch of human nature, Jonah transfers his pity for himself, as an ill-used prophet, to the gourd which likewise had been hardily treated.

The divine question, "Should not I have pity?" remains unanswered. Above the stir and din and wickedness the divine compassion is still brooding.

ARREST IN DYNAMITE PLOT

THREE MEN CHARGED WITH LOS ANGELES OUTRAGE.

Headquarters of Structural Iron Workers Raided and Explosives, Caps and Clock Works Found.

Chicago.—After months of investigation, directed by William J. Burns, a private detective of national fame, three arrests have been made, the prisoners charged with complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times, October 1, 1910, the plant of the Llewellyn iron works at Los Angeles, and other cases, among them one in Kansas City.

One arrest was made in Indianapolis. John J. McNamara, international secretary of the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of America, who have headquarters in Indianapolis, was arrested and spirited out of the state, legally kidnapped.

James W. McNamara, a union printer, and Ortie E. McManigal, a structural iron worker, were brought to Chicago from Detroit. They are charged with complicity in the Los Angeles dynamiting. They were arrested in Detroit April 12 and were held in secret while men from Los Angeles came from the coast and obtained requisition papers.

A later investigation of the international offices of the union disclosed, in a store room in the basement of the building, 64 sticks (about 60 pounds) of dynamite, 200 feet of fuse, 50 dynamite caps, one dozen small alarm clocks and a leather case made to carry a ten-pound can of nitroglycerin. Detective Burns took possession of all the explosives.

TWINKLING STARS ARE WORLDS

Planetary System Similar to Our Own
Revolves Around All the Fixed Stars.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The twinkling star whose cold gleams pierce the depths of space is only another world where beings live and love, feel joy and sorrow, and then lie down to die.

Life is a general phenomenon in the universe and wherever a star twinkles living beings exist, according to Prof. T. J. J. See, whose recent discoveries in cosmical evolution have aroused wide interest in learned circles throughout the world. Prof. See, who is the government astronomer at Mare Island, Cal., naval observatory, spoke before the American Philosophical society.

In outlining his discoveries pertaining to the growth of the planets he laid special stress on the proof now deduced that planetary systems similar to our own revolve around all the fixed stars and that these planets are habitable and inhabited like the planets which revolve around the sun.

READY FOR THE INCOME TAX

If the Amendment Is Ratified by the States Congress May Pass
the Law This Session.

Washington.—The tariff situation in congress may be greatly changed by the ratification of the income tax amendment. The general belief here is that the amendment will be ratified before congress disposes of any of the tariff revision bills proposed by the democrats. The amendment does not impose an income tax, but as soon as it is ratified congress will have authority to enact legislation providing revenue from that source.

The advocates of the amendment are so confident of its ratification that they will be introduced by Senator Norris Brown of Nebraska. If this bill becomes a law the government will receive by taxation on incomes a sum ranging from $70,000,000 to $100,000,000 a year. This would eliminate from the tariff discussion the argument that duties cannot be reduced because the revenue is needed.

Japanese Colony Planned.

Galveston, Texas.—J. Iato, claiming to represent a Japanese company, closed a deal for nearly 5,000 acres of land near the gulf coast and extending into Starr, Nueces and Hidalgo counties, Texas. It is planned to establish a Japanese colony of rice growers and the first settlers will be brought from Mexico.

A Massacre at Fez.

Madrid.—The government has received a telegram saying a native has arrived at Tetuan who declares the Moroccan rebels have stormed Fez and massacred the garrison, and that the sultan has taken refuge in the French consulate.

Officials to Prison.

New Orleans, Louisiana.—Twelve election officials of New Orleans, who recently pleaded guilty in the ballot box "stuffing" cases to charges of violating the state election laws, have been sentenced to eight months' imprisonment each in the parish prison.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

A Backhanded One.
